Introduction

About CXtec

For more than three decades, CXtec has provided new and pre-owned networking, voice, data center and cabling technologies worldwide. We put our own brand of certified pre-owned equal2new® hardware through a rigorous diagnostic inspection and testing process and back it with an industry-leading warranty, thereby setting the standard for reconditioned equipment. All our hardware offerings can be backed by RapidCare™, our next business day advance hardware replacement. We offer an Asset Recovery program that provides cash, credit or trade for used hardware, and IT asset disposal services including data and physical destruction, and a Certificate of Equipment Recycling. CXtec is an ISO-certified company committed to maximizing value for our customers through needs-based, customized solutions. We're a long-standing member of the United Network Equipment Dealer Association (UNEDA), an alliance of more than 300 of the top pre-owned network equipment dealers worldwide. Technology @ Your Pace®, our trademark philosophy, means we provide customized solutions that fit each customer's individualized needs, and they all come standard with the exceptional customer service and technical support for which CXtec is famous.

CXtec Education Team

Take your technology infrastructure to the head of the class with CXtec.

As an educational institution, you have more than just viruses and file sharing to worry about. You're also faced with trying to secure the flow of information between your staff and students. And as if these challenges weren't daunting enough, you're continually up against budgetary constraints. You need an all-in-one provider who can offer an efficient and cost-effective way to meet your educational networking needs.

Put your worries at ease with CXtec. Our experienced and knowledgeable education team will help your facility design, integrate and implement a custom-tailored solution. Our trademark Technology @ Your Pace® philosophy means we work around your financial needs to come up with a solution designed just for you. And since new technology might not always be the best option for you, we offer our exclusive equal2new® certified pre-owned hardware that comes with the industry's most stringent performance guarantee. If it's cables you're after, we offer the CABLExpress® brand as a perfect fit for all your cabling needs. No matter what type of solution we customize for you, we'll work within your budget and time frame to meet your needs.

Simply put, nobody understands your security and financial challenges quite like CXtec. No matter what type of networking hardware you need, you can count on CXtec to help you meet your networking objectives.
