Introduction

We are a reseller company resides in Southern California.

Our name EHP stands for "Education Helps People."

We strongly believe true education can transform the lives of individuals, families, and communities altogether to have a better and promising future.

We have 8+ years of experience in education technology focusing on helping public and private schools gain the greatest benefits from technology investments.

Our focus is not only providing great products at cost-effective prices but also supporting our clients to maximize their use of the products they purchase from us.

Our goal is to ensure all educators we serve to feel 100% confident and comfortable using new technologies, therefore creating a much more effective learning environment for their students.

And that is why we offer free on-going support until we meet our customers' total satisfaction.
